

SHOPPING

Turkey provides a diverse range of shopping opportunities for visitors, with exotic products such as hand painted ceramics, carpets and rugs, and Turkish leather products all being popular with tourists. In Alanya alongside numerous stores catering to tourists there are also many stores dedicated to conventional shopping needs. Alanya has branches of many international chains, with their prices generally being the same as in other countries.

Alanya has a wide range of stores for Home Furnishing requirements, Electrical goods, decorations, porcelain and DIY. You will find many of these stores located within the brand new shopping Mall Alanyum which is located close by in Oba.

With over 11,000 shops, you will find shopping in Alanya a pleasure. You will also find that Turkish hospitality extends everywhere and you will get used to receiving special attention in all shopping places. Most shop assistants can speak more than one language and you will most certainly be able to find a shop assistant who speaks your language in any shop to visit. Try speaking a few words of Turkish in any store and you will find much appreciation and encouragement!

FARMERS MARKETS

A truly unique experience is a trip to one of the various farmers markets which take place weekly in Alanya. The most popular bazaar takes place on Fridays and is commonly known as the Cuma (Friday) Bazaar featuring an array of stalls selling fresh farm produce including spices, seasonal fruits and vegetables, herbs, eggs, cheeses, flowers and more. All the produce is brought into the bazaar fresh from the local farms and you will usually only find produce that is actually in season. Going to the Cuma Bazaar is an essential weekly shop and also great value for money. Make sure you pay a visit. You'll find the bazaar located just off the main street Ataturk Cadessi. Any fruit or vegetable in season is likely to be cheap across Turkey because Turkey is such a large agricultural producer.
